A brief report of the programme

In connection with the birth centenary celebration of the legend Dr. Vikram Sarabhai, a centenary lecture and space exhibition was organized by ISRO in collaboration with the newly formed Science Facilitation Centre at FMNC.

On 20th October, 2019, the inaugural function was held at the College Auditorium. It started with the prayer song by Botany Choir, followed by the welcome address by Dr. Rubin Jose A.S. (Co-ordinator, Science Facilitation Centre, FMNC). Then Shri. V. Kishorenath (Associate Director, VSSC) gave a short presentation on Vikram Sarabhai Centenary Programme. Presidential address was given by Dr. Vincent B. Netto (Principal, FMNC). Then Rev. Fr. Rolden Jose Jacob (Manager, FMNC) made the benedictory address, and he honoured Shri. J. Jayaprakash, the jubilant alumni of FMNC. Inaugural address was given by Shri. J. Jayaprakash. Vikram Sarabhai Centenary lecture was made by Shri. M. Chandradathan. The inaugural session came to an end by the vote of thanks by Shri. N. Jayan (Director, LPSC).

Then the space exhibition was inaugurated by Shri. M. Chandradathan. Thousands of school and college students enjoyed the exhibition.

In connection with this elocution, quiz and painting competitions were organized for school students.

Outcome of the programme

The students were able to understand the developments in the Indian Space Science and Technology, and they were fortunate enough to interact with some eminent personalities in Indian Space Science.
