PROGRAM REPORT

The National Integration Week was observed in our college Fatima Mata National Autonomous, Kollam. Various programmes were carried out under the leadership of teachers from vivid departments of the college. Programmes and events included Arts and Educational events that would bring out the different talents of the students. There was active participation by teachers and students equally. Truly this activity did bring out the Integration between the faculties and students of our college.

The Self Financing Stream was given the opportunity of organing the Elocution for the Students in Malayalam. The conveyors of the program committee were Dr Suzy Joseph from the Department of Languages and Mr Nibin Nelson from the Department of English. The topic was THE ROLE OF YOUTH IN PROTECTING COMMUNAL AMITY.

The Judges for the event were Dr Suzy Joseph and Mr Raghunath From the department of Malayalam and Hindi respectively. There was good participation from students from different streams in our college. There was an audience too to help and encourage their fellow classmates.

The event took place on the 11/12/2019 at 12:00 pm in the classroom F4 in the Department of English floor of the self-financing stream. The lots were taken to see the order of the students to have their turns in the Elocution.

It was good to see the students had well prepared and given a good amount of time for research and preparation of the speech. It was indeed a good competition between them. But as an audience, it was a well informative event.

As in every event, there should be winners. The event concluded and the judges gave the name of the winners out.

Winners

1st Place Aparna Thulisadharan – 1st BA English

2nd Place Ramu D Chandran – 2nd BA English (SF)

3rd Place Vennus – 3rd Bsc Maths

The program was indeed a success with the participation and of the students and the faculty. We had teachers from the self stream helping us with arranging the program.
