The National Foundation for Communal Harmony is an autonomous organisation under the Union Ministry of Home Affairs. It promotes communal harmony and strengthens nation's integration. The observance of Communal Harmony Campaign Week and Flag Day Celebrations is aimed at fostering and reinforcing the spirit of communal harmony, national integration and pride in vibrant, composite culture and nationhood.

Department of Economics, readily took up the initiative to organize an inter department paper presentation competition on Communal Harmony and Sustainable Development of the Country, as part of the observance of Communal Harmony Campaign Week and Flag Day Celebrations. The competition was conducted at 11.00 a.m. on 11th December 2019 in the Bishop Stanley Roman Seminar Hall (Golden Jubilee Block).

Eight students from various departments participated. Ms. Stella S and Ms. Ayona Nelson (Faculty members, Department of Economics) adjudicated. The winner was Sam Emmanuel Peter S, III DC Economics A Batch. Judith Benedict of II DC Economics B Batch got second place and Jaisha B of III DC History secured the third place. The presentations could make a deep imprint in the minds of the students about the significance of Communal Harmony and Sustainable Development of the Country.
