ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Based on the recommendations of the heads of the departments, an Awards Committee selects students for the various scholarships and Merit Awards, taking into account their performance in the Examinations of the previous academic year. The scholarships and awards are distributed at a glittering ceremony - Merit Day - held every year.

The Scholarships are classed under two heads.

“Closed” i.e., reserved for the Catholic students of the Diocese of Kollam.

“Open” i.e., available to all students.

No two scholarships can be held by the same student concurrently except by specific sanction of the Awards Committee.

3 Awards will not be made if there are no deserving candidates.

Scholarships shall be awarded on a year-to-year basis taking merit- cum-means as well as conduct into consideration. A student whose conduct does not seem satisfactory to the Awards Committee will NOT BE ELIGIBLE for any of the awards or scholarships.

Scholarships are liable to be withheld temporarily or forfeited in the event of the student’s continued absence, negligence in studies or misbehaviour.

Students who do not pass the Plus two level or Degree examination in the first appearance will not ordinarily be considered for the award of the scholarships.

The selection of candidates for the scholarships shall be made by the Awards Committee.

These and following rules may be revised by the Principal as and when found necessary.

IN MEMORY OF THE DOYEN

REV. MSGR A.J. ROZARIO MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIPS

The Staff Association of FMN College has instituted the Rev. Msgr A.J. Rozario Memorial Scholarship in memory of the late Msgr A.J. Rozario, former Principal who also served the College as Lecturer, Vice Principal, and Manager.

This Scholarship, amounting to Rs. 2000 (per student) is awarded to one student from each of the departments of Arts, Science and Commerce. Selection is based on Merit-cum-Means as per the recommendations of the respective HODs.

REV. MSGR A.J. ROZARIO ENDOWMENT

The Former Students' Association of FMN College has created the Rev. Msgr A.J. Rozario Endowment in memory of the late Msgr A.J. Rozario, former Principal who also served the College as Lecturer, Vice Principal, and Manager. One of the aims of the Endowment is to provide Medical / Educational aid to deserving students of FMN College annually.

Students who have some serious health problem and are in need of financial support for their treatment OR students who need monetary help for their education can apply to the Principal for aid from the endowment. The Endowment Committee of the Former Student's Association will consider such applications on merit and availability of funds and extend maximum support.
