Sri/Smt,

Sub: Kerala State Council for Child Welfare (KSCCW) - Children's Day Stamps- 2015-2016 regarding:-

Ref: 1, G.O(Rt) No. 287/2016/SJD dated : 27/06/2016
2, Message of Hon'ble Chief Minister of Kerala

You may be aware that, every year Kerala State Council for Child Welfare is releasing Children's Day Stamps with the permission of the State Government for collecting donations from the public for supporting various activities undertaken by the Council. The KSCCW is a society registered under Travancore – Cochin Charitable Societies Act headed by the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Kerala as President and the Minister for Social Justice as Vice President. At present the District Collector, Thiruvananthapuram is holding the charge of Administrator of the Institution.

The KSCCW is undertaking various activities for the well-being of the Children from the age group of 0 to 16. For saving the life of abandoned children, the Council is running "Ammathottil" (an electronic cradle system to receive abandoned children) and also maintaining Foundling homes to protect the children so received. At present 15 Ammathottils- one each at 13 districts and 2 at Thiruvananthapuram District- and 2 Foundling homes are functioning under the Council. In addition to this, the Council is maintaining 220 Creches, 10 Anganwadi Workers Training Centers at various districts, Autism Special School, Chachachi Children's Doll Museum, Women and Children's Library and Ambulance service for Children at Thiruvananthapuram etc. Now, 84 children below the age of six are under the motherly fold of the Council. Last year, the Council introduced Montessori system of education and "PUNERJENI" (to motivate and inculcate good life skills to the children and sponsoring them for better education) at Thiruvananthapuram and proposed to start the same at all other districts in the next few years. Every year the council organizes vacation classes, competitions various functions to commemorate Children's Day (November 14), our 1st Prime Minister's Birthday.

For all these activities, the Council is indebted to the public those who are whole heartedly receiving the Children's day stamps and parting some amount as a gesture of goodwill. We are not receiving any special assistance from the Government. This year (2015-2016) we have released 85 lakh Children's day stamps of 10 rupee denomination. Part of this is to be released to the students through Educational Institutions like Schools, ITI, Polytechnics, Arts, Science, Law, Engineering, Medical, Dental, Ayurveda, Homeo, Veterinary, Animal Sciences, Fisheries, Forestry, Agriculture and Nursing Colleges etc.

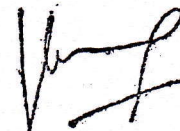

We are sending herewith Children's Day Stamps worth ₹ 2,000/- (Nos: 200) for distribution among the students and staff of your Institution. The sale proceeds may be remitted by Cash or DD (after deducting the D.D. Commission) in favour of the Administrator & District Collector Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala State Council for Child Welfare, Thycaud P.O., Thiruvananthapuram, 695014, payable at any Bank in Thiruvananthapuram city.

I also to request you to mention/specifically in the correspondences, year of stamp and GO No/letter Number. Kindly inform the mail-ID, Website, and Phone or fax number if your institution has any.

An appeal issued by Sri. Pinarayi Vijayan the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Kerala and President, Kerala State Council for Child Welfare and relevant Government Orders is also enclosed.

We expect your full & active support for this noble cause which will be highly appreciated.

With regards,
Yours faithfully,

Venkatesapathy. S. IAS
