IQAC INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL

7.1.7 Disabled-friendly Measures: Additional Information

Cell for Divyangjans:

The College has constituted a Cell for Divyangjans, with principal, vice principal, 2 teachers, and 2 student representatives as its members. The Cell conducts activities and organizes programmes for the empowerment and building up the confidence of the Divyangjans. Maximum support is extended to the students, to help them face the challenge and be on a par with the other students.

Special Skill Development Initiative in Library Usage:

To encourage the reading habit and to develop the reading skills of the Divyangjans, Divyangjan Friendliness Scholarship for the Best Library User has been constituted by DrLawrencina Beryl Navis (former Head of the Department of English). The scholarship is distributed on the College Merit Day, along with other scholarships, to give due recognition to the achievement of the student concerned. The scholarship for both 2017-18 and 2018-19 was given to MrDevanand S. of Dept of Psychology. It is worth noting that MrDevanand qualified the UGC, NET held on 08.07.2018.

The candidate must fulfil the minimum eligibility conditions for NET as laid down in the notification for UGC-NET.

Mentoring Sessions

The Divyangians are given mentoring sessions in order to help them build up their self-confidence. Both group mentoring and personal mentoring are done, according to the need of the situation (Watch Video). However, care is taken to ensure that their self-esteem is not in any way hurt or they become conscious of their limitations. All the student members share their personal experience, which would be motivating for others also.

Motivational Talk

Regular motivational talks are given to the Divyangjans, to boost up their morale and to help them tap their latent talents. A motivational talk was held on 5.3.2018 in the College by DrBindu Mary Francis, Medical Officer ESI Hospital, Asramam. The differently abled students along with their parents and class teachers attended the talk. DrBindu talked at length of the physical and mental challenges they have to overcome. The words of DrBindu, herself a divyangjan, was really inspiring for our students. Her own life was the greatest message and motivation for our students.

Divyangjans as our Distinguished Guests of Honour:

The Institution sees to it that our students, and Divyangjans in particular, draw inspiration from the successful life stories of differently abled people. With this aim in view, the College invites Divyangjans as Guests of Honour in our functions. We believe that showcasing their achievements and sharing their stories of struggle and success would be highly motivating for our students, to fight and overcome all challenges in life.

For the inauguration of the Arts Day 2018, Mr Krishna Kumar, an active member of MinD (Mobility in Dystrophy), a fellowship of patients of muscular dystrophy in Kerala, was the chief guest. The overwhelming response of the students was indeed heartwarming.

Role of the Faculty Advisors

The faculty advisors give special care and attention to the Divyangjans, and the fellow students are also advised to incorporate them into all the activities of the classes, so that they won't feel left out. The faculty advisors also encourage their cultural and artistic talents, in all possible ways.

Provision for Scribes and extra time:

The College takes extra care of the Divyangjans by providing them with all possible assistance during their examination. On request, scribes are provided and also extra time given, if required.

Equal Opportunity Cell

To ensure that colleges are more responsive to the needs and constraints of the disadvantaged groups, the UGC has directed to establish Equal Opportunity Centres in colleges. In order to cater to the needs of all categories of marginalised sections in the society, Fatima also constituted an Equal Opportunity Cell, in June 2016. Motivational talks, training programmes, experience sharing sessions are regularly conducted. Some of our Divyangjans who are members of Equal Opportunity Cell are beneficiaries of these sessions.

Our Divyangjans making News: Our.B.Com student (2013-16)Shahanamade it to the news, when she shared the success story of her life in a meeting organized by the SarvaShikshaAbhiyaan (SSA). She narrated how she battled financial constraints and physical disability to reach her present position.

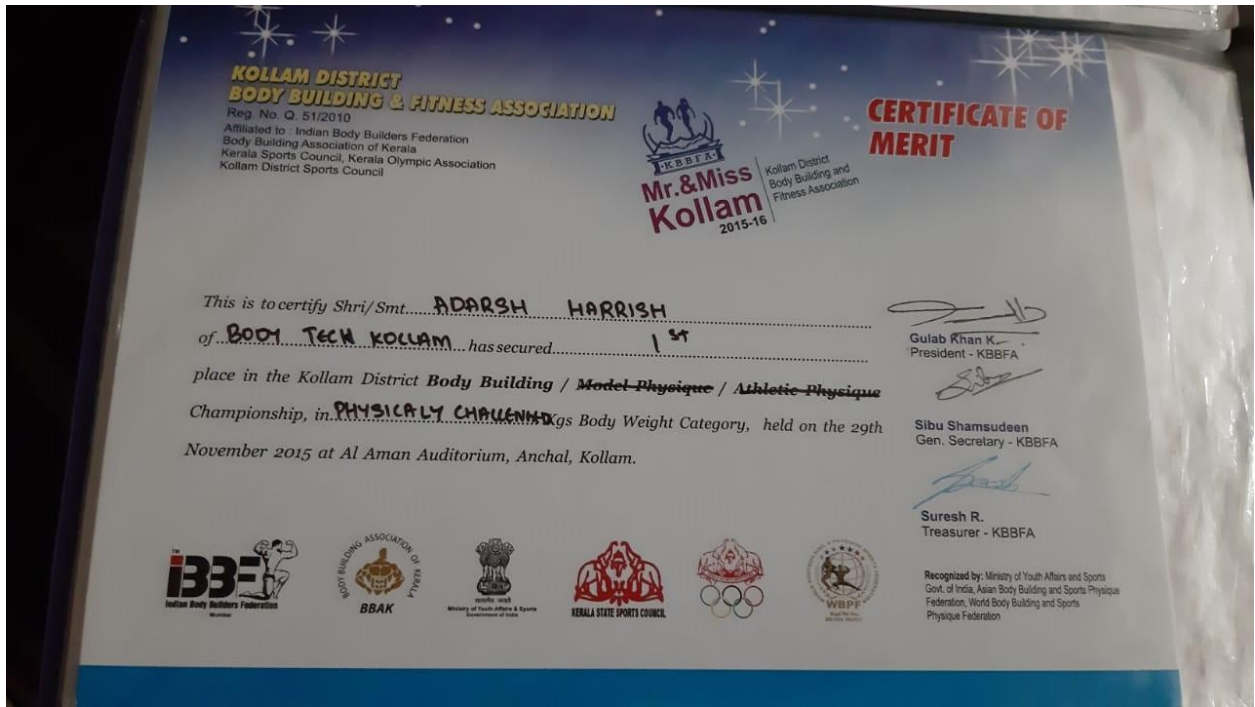

A write up on Shahana in the MalayalamManorama Daily carrying the title “Shahana: The Model of Self-Confidence”

Adarsh Harish of B.A.English (2016-19), has won several prizes in National Body Building Competitions. Adarsh was featured in the show “Big Salute” telecast by MazhavilManorama channel in the Programme (Watch Video).

Our Illustrious Divyangjan Alumni Record

FATIMA proudly places on record the placement details of our Divyangjan alumni. Mr Joyesh S (M.A. English 2017-19 Batch) has been appointed as the guest faculty of the Self Financing stream of B.A English. Mr Joyesh has proved his teaching calibre even as a student of the College, a highly inspiring presence among his classmates.

Fatima's Voice for the Rights of the Divyangjans

Students of Fatima made a survey of the chief public spaces of Kollam and assessed that they are not wheel chair friendly. In collaboration with MinD (Mobility in Dystrophy), a fellowship of patients of muscular dystrophy in Kerala, they submitted a petition to the District Collector MrKarthikeyan, (on 20.01.2018) who gave the full assurance that he would do the needful. Mr. Karthikeyan made a special mention of this instance and complimented the sense of social commitment among our students when he attended a function in our college. Manorama Channel aired the report on 25.01.2018 (Watch Video).
