II. FATIMA SAHAYAHASTHAM (LENDING A HELPING HAND)

Fatima students are at the forefront in extending financial and material help to victims of natural calamities. They engage themselves wholeheartedly in the relief activities.

A. CYCLONE RELIEF ACTIVITIES

Okhi Fund Raising: As part of Christmas celebrations, students collected funds for Cyclone Okhi relief activities and distributed it among the victims.

B.FLOOD RELIEF ACTIVITIES UNDERTAKEN BY DIFFERENT DEPARTMENTS AND CLUBS

It was an unprecedented student mobilisation that Fatima witnessed when the state was shattered by natural calamities, like the Cyclone Okhi (2017) and the gigantic flood (2018) which virtually engulfed half of the state. Fatimites were at the forefront lending a helping hand to the victims by giving them financial and material help

- August 22-23, 2018: NSS volunteers participated in the cleaning project named “NAAVYAM -2018” organised by NSS, to clean the flood-affected areas

NSS Unit of the College also collected items, which were handed over to the collection centre running in the college

- NCC (Army) Cadets participated in the Kerala Flood Relief activities. Cadets collected cash, food materials, and prepared cleaning detergents and sent them to relief camps on 20th August 2018.

A collection of one lakh seventeen thousand rupees was handed over to J. Mercykutty Amma (Minister of Fisheries)

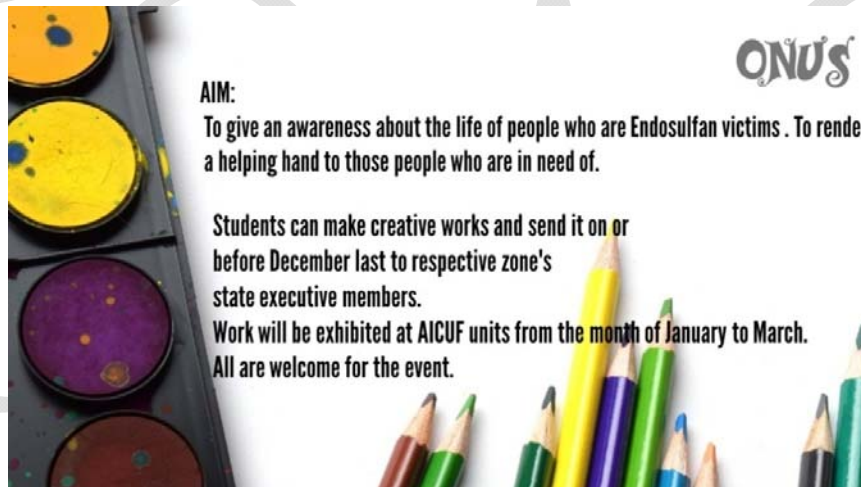

C) HELPING ENDOSULFAN VICTIMS

- M.Sc Previous students of Department of Botany, organized a fund raising campaign on 4th November, 2015, in association with the 'NallaPadam' of MalayalaManorama Daily. An amount of Rs. 12000/- was collected and the amount was handed over to the Manager of the college, Fr. Anil Jose. Later it was donated to the 'NallaPadam' of MalayalaManorama Daily.

- On 10-01-2019, The Kerala AICUF had organized an art exhibition (ONUS) and a signature campaign in order to stand for the rights of the Endosulfan victims. FMNC AICUF members couriered 13 posters which they managed to prepare in between their exams. FMNC AICUF members managed to collect more than 560 signatures by 10th January 2019 from the campus in support of this venture. Their effort was fruitful as the Govt. agreed to do justice in the matter of the Endosulfan victims after the hunger strike by the social worker Dayabhai and the Kerala AICUF before the Secretariat. Thus the AICUF members of FMNC could become part of a genuine social work.

AIM:
To give an awareness about the life of people who are Endosulfan victims . To render a helping hand to those people who are in need of.

Students can make creative works and send it on or before December last to respective zone's state executive members.

Work will be exhibited at AICUF units from the month of January to March. All are welcome for the event.

D) FATIMA'S CONTRIBUTION TO COMBAT COVID-19

As the fear of the pandemic gripped the masses and shortage of sanitizers became a serious concern, teachers and students of the Department of Chemistry rose to the occasion and prepared sanitizers and distributed them in the College. Sanitizers were also distributed at the railway station and the people were alerted to the gravity of the situation.

III. FATIMA KOODEYUNDU (FATIMA IS WITH YOU)

In collaboration with Quilon Social Service Society (QSSS), FATIMA has started an outreach programme for the benefit of the local community, whereby the students and faculty of FATIMA join hands with the social workers of QSSS to execute a large number of programmes. The Community Outreach Program was initiated by the College during the academic year 2018-2019 to develop an ongoing program that would enable the participation of dedicated teachers and students in the activities associated with the mission and vision of our College – to help the downtrodden of the Society. The outreach programmes include activities that can help the rural poor in the upliftment of their social and economic status. Various Outreach activities were conducted during this period. The members were given hands on training on candle making and paper bag preparation. They worked as volunteers for General Medical Camp, the Cancer Screening Camp etc. (Please refer the detailed Report)

IV. SNEHAVIHITHAM: A SHARE OF OUR LOVE

Snehavihitham is a Share and Care Initiative by the College, undertaken with the support of AICUF and IQAC, to offer noon meals to the poor and the destitute. The event is scheduled to be held on the 11th of every month. The students and the faculty are directed to bring one extra meal each to be distributed in the poor homes, orphanages and old age homes.

V. 'SANTHVANAM': FATIMA CHARITY VISITS

A) PALLIATIVE CARE VISITS

- With the aim of lending a helping hand to cancer patients, members of the Community Health Club visited the Pain & Palliative Clinic along with their co-ordinator Mrs. Nisha Thomas on 29-03-18. Mr. N.M. Pillai, the secretary of the P & P Trust gave an introduction as to how pain and palliative care functions. This was followed by interactive sessions by Retd. Prof. Laila, Dr. Kamalasanan, Dr. Rani and others. The students and teacher Mrs. Nisha Thomas donated clothes and other stationery items needed for the patients. It was decided to form a palliative care voluntary group in the college so as to continue serving these hapless people.

- The members of the Community Health Club along with their co-ordinator Mrs. Nisha Thomas visited the Pain & Palliative Care Clinic at Chinnakada on 16-5-2019. Dr. Jayasree and Prof. Laila spoke to the children about what palliative care is and about the activities of the clinic. The trust members requested that we make them gauze pieces required to dress the sores of cancer patients, since that was what they needed the most. Students distributed clothes, soap, toothbrushes, pastes, for the inmates.

- WORKSHOP ON GAUZE MAKING FOR TERMINALLY ILL CANCER PATIENTS ON 21-12-2019

Under the auspices of the 'Pain and Palliative Care Clinic' at Kollam, Community Health Club organized a workshop on gauze making for its members on Saturday, 21-12-2019. The programme titled "SANTHWANAM Community Health Club" was inaugurated by our Manager Rev Dr Rolden Jose Jacob. Mr Lekshminarayanan, a former Medical Rep and currently a volunteer at palliative care clinic spoke about their activities and how our students could help the terminally ill cancer patients either directly or indirectly. Mr. M K Appu, formerly a medical personnel in the Armed Forces in UAE, and who after retiring worked at Upasana Hospital for sometime, and a volunteer at the clinic, spoke of the hardships faced by his daughter who fought cancer. It was this experience that brought him to palliative care. He then went on to demonstrate how to make gauze pads for the patients under their care. The raw materials were brought by them. All the 40 students who took part were asked to make gauzes of various sizes. This was done under the supervision of Mr. M K Appu. On January 17th, the students made dressing pads and they were handed over to the Clinic.
