

SPORTS DAY

The National Sports Day in India is celebrated on 29th August, on the birth anniversary of hockey legend Major Dhyan Chand. This day marks the birthday of Major Dhyan Chand Singh, the hockey player who won gold medals in Olympics for India in the years 1928, 1932 and 1936.

Sports develop a sense of friendliness among the children and develop their team spirit. It helps children to develop mental and physical toughness. Participation in sports and other physical activities can have many benefits for children. Participation in organized sports offers the chance for youth to enhance their physical and social skills. A balance should be maintained that matches the child's maturity, skills, and their interests with their sports participation. Sports offer children a change from the monotony of their daily life. It is also a useful means of entertainment and physical activity for them.

Children also learn how to cope in a competitive environment as well as learning all about winning and losing; these are important life skills to assimilate in preparation for the working environment. Sport is an excellent tool to build self-confidence. Sports bring discipline in life. Sports certainly sharpen the mind and reduces the stress of mind.

SPORTS DAY @ FATIMA

Sports day at Fatima was organized on 01.03.2019. On this day, the sports club members were fully engaged in organizing the college annual sports day in a very successful manner. The sports day activities started at 8 am and concluded at 6 pm. The club members started by marking the track and fields as per standard specifications, and then even officiated for the competitions as per rules. In general, the manner in which the students organized the sports day was very encouraging. On conclusion of the sports day, they expressed their confidence in organizing such competitions, stating that they could individually manage such events in future even after leaving college.

MERIT DAY CELEBRATION

Merit is a concept considered fundamental to Buddhist ethics. It is a beneficial and protective force which accumulates as a result of good deeds, acts, or thoughts. Merit Day is meant to be an occasion for giving award for meritorious achievement for students. Merit is an excellent achievement, honor, value or quality that is deserving of approval. This program is held to recognize the young talents. Awards are a way to encourage good behavior and inculcate competitive spirit.

An award is given to recognize achievement. No matter what field it represents, it is important to give an award to show that a person's achievement is appreciated and commended. Awards are given to recognize an achievement, a victory or any great act that is praise worthy. Awards are a way to show that a person is both appreciated and celebrated. The very essence of giving an award is to recognize the expertise and outstanding achievement in a particular field. Awards can also encourage people to do better and they can serve as a form of motivation. That is why they are frequently used in education sector.

ARTS FESTIVAL

Art is the product of creative human activity in which materials are shaped or selected to convey an idea, emotion or visually interesting form. The art can refer to visual arts, including sculpture, painting, architecture, photography etc. Art is the use of skill and imagination in the creation of aesthetic objects that can be shared with others. It involves the arranging of elements in a way that appeals to the senses or emotions or acts as a means of communication with the viewer as it represents the thoughts of the artist.

An arts festival is a festival that can encompass a wide range of art genres including music, dance, film, fine art, literature, poetry etc. and isn't solely focused on visual arts. History shows that art has been used as a major tool for communication.

DOCUMENTARY FEST

A documentary film is a non-fictional, motion picture intended to document reality, primarily for the purposes of instruction, education, or maintaining a historical record. Documentary has been described as a filmmaking practice, a cinematic tradition, and mode of audience reception that is continually evolving and is without clear boundaries. Documentary films were originally called actuality films, and were one minute, or less, in length. Over time, documentaries have evolved to be longer in length, and to include more categories; some examples being: educational, observational etc. Documentaries are meant to be informative works, and are often used in educational institutions as a resource to teach various principles. The documentary Fest helps to bring out the real talents.

DOCUMENTARY FEST @ FATIMA

The Theatre and Film club of Fatima Mata National College in association with Public Relation Department, Government of Kerala conducted a documentary fest in college media room. The documentary fest held on 26th March 2019 had great appreciation from the audience. The College Manager Rev. Dr. Rolden Jacob Inaugurated the fest at 10.15 am and Mr. Girish U the club convener presided over the meeting. The following documentaries were screened during the event.

The fest was an opportunity to see five different styles of documentaries. The documentaries on renowned personalities of Malayalam film industry were of different styles of presentation. The Documentary “P Padmarajan” was a biographical description of the great filmmaker. “Devanayakan” was another biopic which illustrated the life of the great film actor Padmasri Prem Nazir, another notable documentary was the one on the famous film director Ramu Karat entitled as “Swpnavum Cnemayum.” The documentary on Vailopalli Sreedhara Menon based on his literary themes was a different experience, specifically by the different kind of narration used. The afternoon session began with works and life of C V Raman Pillai, extended an outlook into the socio economic condition of the period. The concept of renaissance in his work and reluctance to practice in life was one of the point of the discussions of the picture. The last documentary on Vallathol Narayana Menon and his contribution to Malayalam poetry and Kerala Kalamandalam differed from others in the way of narration. The students had a new experience with this fest as the technical and style completely different from that of commercial films.

UNION AND ARTS CLUB INAUGURATION

Most colleges and universities have unions which are expected to work for the welfare of students of a particular institution. Students' unions are established to give voice to students and also to make sure that a particular institution is not manhandling the students, and their rights are not compromised. Recognized student organizations create opportunities for leadership development, learning, student engagement, and fostering of shared interests. The student organizations are expected to uphold policies and procedures of the institution and always act in good faith when conducting its business.

WORLD CONSUMER DAY CELEBRATION

It is a day marked to raise global awareness about consumer rights and needs. Celebrating World Consumer Rights Day is a chance to demand that the rights of all consumers are respected and protected, and to protest against market abuses and social injustices which undermine those rights. The World Consumer Rights Day is celebrated every year on March 15 to pay solidarity with the international consumer movement and give more attention to promote basic rights of consumers.

World Consumer Rights Day was inspired by President John F Kennedy, who sent a special message to the US Congress on 15th March 1962, in which he formally addressed the issue of consumer rights. He was the first world leader to do so. The consumer movement first marked that date in 1983 and now uses the day every year to mobilize action on important issues and campaigns.
